Report On Workshop on Career Opportunities in Retailing & Digital Marketing

Retailing comes at the end of the marketing distributive channel. In India, retailing originated from the emergence of Kirana stores and mom-and-pop stores, which used to cater to the needs of local people. Before 1980's retailing in India was synonymous with peddlers, vegetable vendors, neighborhood kirana stores or sole clothing and consumer durable stores in a nearby town. In 1980's saw the major change in retailing. The textile companies like Bombay Dyeing, S Kumar's, Grasim and Raymonds came up with retail chains in textile sector, followed by Titan retail showrooms in the organized retail sector. Liberalization of the Indian economy led to withdrawal of stringent restrictions and the latter half of the 1990s saw a fresh wave of retailer entrants. With a shift from manufactures to pure retailers. The retail sector has emerged as one of the most dynamic and fast-paced industry in India due to the entry of several new players and presently it is the most booming sector in Indian economy.
